NEW SUNDAY MORNING CLASSES BEGIN JUNE 22

9:00 Studies in Psalms
Tom Beckner, teacher

The Psalms are often called "the heart of the Old Testament," not only because they are located near the middle of our Bible, but also because it works on our hearts. They express a wide variety of emotions that continue to speak to our hearts thousands of years after they were written.

Yet, few Christians realize that there is an intentional arrangement of the book, that the poems/songs contained within it connect with different eras in Israel's history, or that the book is a part of the larger narrative story of God's revelation to His people.

Join us for the Summer as we study the book, identify some of its key themes, learn a bit about how its poetry works, and even read some of your favorite selections. You will leave this study with an increased appreciation for this section of God's word.

10:00 Galatians
Jim Jacobs, teacher

In his short letter to the Galatians, Paul outlines the bombshell truth that the gospel is the A to Z in the Christian life. He tells us that it is not only the way to enter the kingdom, but it is the way to live in the kingdom.

We will see Paul telling the Galatians that all they need—all they will ever need—is the gospel of God's unmerited favor through the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus. Paul is going to help them solve their problems, not by telling them to "be better Christians," but by calling them to live out the implications of the gospel.

We will watch how Paul challenges them, and us, with the simple truth that the gospel is not just the ABCs of Christianity, but that the gospel is the A through Z, and that Christians need the gospel just as much as non-Christians. It transforms our hearts, our thinking, and our worldview.
